LENTEN PENANCE REQUIREMENTS

Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. All Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all Fridays of Lent. Fasting as explained by the U.S. Bishops, means partaking of only one full meal and two smaller ones not equaling a full meal. Abstinence forbids eating of meat, but not of eggs, milk products or condiments made of animal fat. It does not include meat juices and liquids made from meat. Thus, such foods as chicken broth, consommé, soups cooked or flavored with meat, meat gravies or sauces, as well as seasonings or condiments made from animal fat are not forbidden. It is permissible to use margarine and lard, even bacon drippings which contain little bits of meat may be poured over lettuce as seasoning.

OBSERVING LENT AS A FAMILY . . . doesn't have to be complicated or boring. Involving everyone in the family, especially children can be a great way of growing our faith. Here are 10 easy ideas for celebrating Lent this season, from CatholicIcing.com:

1. Go to Mass as a family on Ash Wednesday. This is so great because even the smallest members of the family can have ashes.
2. Motivate your children to do good deeds and make sacrifices. A sacrifice bean jar is a simple way to encourage kids to fill their jars with good deeds!
3. Give something up for Lent as a family, we always give up candy as a blanket sacrifice, and then decide on other things. Other good "blanket sacrifices" are no music in the car, no eating out, or drinking only water during Lent.
4. Set up an almsgiving box– you simply set out a box, and take 1 thing from your own pantry every day of Lent. At the end of Lent, take the box to a food pantry. Pray for those that are hungry.
5. Set up an offering jar– all you need is a jar or piggy bank of some kind. Spare change goes into the jar for the length of Lent, and then is donated. Pray for those less fortunate.
6. Add extra prayers to your daily life. Maybe this is extra prayers or the rosary in the morning or at bedtime. If you have older kids, encourage them to set extra goals for personal prayer as well.
7. Go to confession as a family.
8. Count down the days of Lent with a printable Lenten calendar for your kids:

9. Attend Stations of the Cross at your church. We especially love to do this on Good Friday.
10. And the number 1 easy thing that takes no extra effort that I really want you to do is.... Save all of the Easter celebrating for Easter!
