SUNDAY APRIL 10, 2016

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

cf. Psalm 66(65):1-2

*Cry out with joy to God,
all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise,
alleluia.*

THE RISEN CHRIST

In this Sunday's first reading and Gospel we see Peter and the other disciples in action after the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. On trial, they refused to stop teaching in Jesus' name, and they rejoiced at the opportunity to suffer for their beliefs. On the lake and its shore, face to face with the Risen Lord, they obeyed his directions and recognized him as he once again ate a meal with them. There are so many human and almost homey touches in these readings! The high priest in the first scene sounds as if he is scolding naughty students. There is an order to stop speaking in Jesus' name, but it is evident everyone knows they will disobey again. And on the lake shore, we can imagine Peter's excitement as he strides out of the water and is greeted by Jesus, who grins and says, "Come, have breakfast."

The second reading, on the other hand, is anything but homey. In this passage from Revelation, John describes a scene in which the same Lord who fed his friends breakfast here receives honor and glory from everything in the universe.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS APPEAL . . . The Catholic Home Missions Appeal will take place on the weekend of April 23rd and 24th. One way that this appeal works is to support home mission dioceses in the United States by supporting seminarian formation in poor dioceses. The blessing of seminarians places a financial burden on these dioceses, because educating each seminarian costs $35-40K per year. Your support is needed for these young men so that they might go back and serve their parishes. Please strengthen the Church at home by making a generous gift to next week's appeal.

JOCKEYS & JULEPS . . . Online registration is now open for St. Anne-Pacelli Catholic School's 10th Annual Spring Event, Jockeys & Juleps, to be held Sat., Apr. 30 at 7 p.m. in St. Anne Church's Visitation Hall. Pre-sale admission is $30/person until Apr. 17 and $35/person the evening of the event. Proceeds will be used to fund the purchase of a new sound system for the High School Auditorium and playground enhancements.
