HOPE AND LIFE

Today's readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow's only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today's second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

ANNUAL YARD SALE . . . The Ladies' Auxiliary of Columbus' Annual Yard Sale will take place on Saturday, June 25, 2016 from 7 a.m. until Noon, in St. Anne Catholic Church's Visitation Hall (2000 Kay Circle). BABY BOTTLE BOOMERANG . . . After women in unplanned pregnancies visit Sound Choices, they write down their thoughts in an "exit interview." One expectant mother wrote this comment after having an ultrasound. "Seeing my baby move around made me feel joyful and excited, rather than scared and worried. I'm not in this alone." Please continue to fill those baby bottles. Because of the support of people like you, Sound Choices can offer LIFE while being there for women in need of love and support.
